How to Keep Our Elders Safe

You're invited to the launch of our Virtual Salon Series. The Country is reopening, but Coronavirus is still a real and lethal threat—especially for the population we all serve: elders. Our inaugural Salon will focus on the facts and fiction of COVID-19 and how you can provide the right resources and support to clients and caregivers.

WHEN

Wednesday, June 10th
10:00am – 11:30am

WHERE

Virtual Event on Zoom

WHAT

Each panelist will speak for 10 minutes followed by a Q & A.

Elizabeth Landsverk, MD.
Founder of ElderConsult
Geriatric Medicine

Elizabeth Landsverk, M.D will talk about the medical issues and myths of COVID-19. What happens to people who are infected? What is recovery like? Dr. Landsverk will share what the experience has been like for some of her patients.

Jim Kimzey,
Founder and CEO of
Tender Rose Dementia
Care Specialists

Jim Kimzey will outline measures Tender Rose has taken to protect clients and employees during the pandemic. He'll highlight a Tender Rose client and his transition to our new live-in care program to minimize the risk of exposure by asymptomatic or pre-symptomatic caregivers.

Angela Dickson, MSW.
CMC, Life Care
Manager Team Lead For LivHOME

Angela Dickson will discuss isolation and depression in the aging population during the pandemic. How can we identify the signs and symptoms? How can we advocate on our clients' behalf?

Tami Anastasia, MA.
Founder of TAMS
Alzheimer's & Dementia
Support

Tami Anastasia will review caregiver challenges and the conflicting feelings and emotions sheltering in place has brought to the surface. She'll also provide COVID-19 C.A.R.E. strategies.

We hope you can attend and share your feedback on the Salon and its relevance to a broader audience in the future!
